Failure to abide by the Constitution and Bylaws or Standing Rules of the club.

ROSWELL BASS CLUB STANDING RULES

TOURNAMENTS

General Rules

- The Tournament Director will control the launch site, start time, finish time, weigh-in, disqualifications for the tournament, and selection of the weigh-in location and all measurements will be based upon his board.
- Only largemouth bass, spotted (Kentucky) bass, shoal bass, redeye bass and smallmouth bass or any cross (hybrid) of these species may be weighed in.
- Dead fish in well cannot be culled. Only five fish in well at any time. You must cull with fish in hand (at no time can there be six fish in the live well.)
- All fish must be a minimum of twelve inches in length unless the minimum length on the tournament lake is greater, in which case the requirement for the lake prevails.
- Only artificial baits and lures may be used. No live bait allowed nor any preserved natural baits other than pork chunks, pork frogs, and pork eels. Trolling is not permitted.
- When sight fishing, all fish must be hooked inside the mouth. Any fish not hooked inside the mouth shall be released.
- A Coast Guard approved life jacket (PFD) will be worn at all times when the combustion engine is running and a functioning kill switch will be mandatory in all boats. These safety measures can be monitored by any member and failure to abide will mean disqualification from the tournament.
- Each boat owner will have a measuring board to measure questionable fish. The boat owner's measuring board should be checked against the Tournament Director's board. No fish will be officially measured at the weigh-in by an individual, but can be checked by the Tournament Director.
- Rods cannot be greater than eight feet (96 inches) in length measured from the butt to the tip.
- An angler may only use one rod and reel at a time, and the angler must have the rod in control at all times that a bait is in the water.
- Each cast must be completed before another cast may be made (i.e., a cast cannot be made, then the rod laid down and another cast made with a different rod). Anglers must have valid fishing licenses for all tournament waters.
- All boats (participants) shall obey all rules and regulations (i.e., no wake zones, any waters marked ("NO BOATS", etc.) of any tournament waters. Failure to do so shall result in disqualification from the tournament in which the violation occurs.
- No alcoholic beverages or illegal drugs are allowed in the boat during tournament hours.

ROSWELL BASS CLUB CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS

Tournament Draw

- The Tournament Director, or another club officer in his absence, shall conduct the draw for tournament partners prior to the upcoming tournament. Partners shall be drawn as “boater” and “non-boater” with the boater drawn first. Should there be a greater number of boaters than non-boaters in the draw, then the remaining boaters may fish solo or fish with another boater. No boater shall be forced due to the draw to fish as a non-boater more than once per calendar year. No boater or non-boater shall be forced due to the draw to fish three to a boat more than once per calendar year.
- Guests are always welcome at tournaments. Any member wishing to bring a guest should contact the Tournament Director prior to the tournament draw. Guests will be permitted to fish in club tournaments solely at the discretion of the Tournament Director. No member will be forced to fish three per boat due to a guest participating in the tournament.
- A member not present at a meeting may be included in the draw for partners by prior notification to the Tournament Director of his intent to fish the upcoming tournament by the tournament draw.
- A member not included in the partner drawing may be permitted to fish the tournament solely at the discretion of the Tournament Director or Vice President and must contact one of these officers for such determination.
- A member participating in the tournament draw for partners is expected to fish the tournament.
- The non-boater partner should contact the boater by Wednesday night after the meeting to discuss travel arrangements, fishing locations, etc.
- Each non-boat owner is required to pay the boat owner $30.00 for a one day tournament and $50.00 for a two day tournament to help cover the cost of operation.
- If a non-boater partner does not show up for the tournament and does not have a valid excuse, as determined by the boater partner and/or the Executive Committee, the non-boater shall pay the boater the appropriate expense for gas ($30 for one day, $50 for two day). If a boater partner does not show up for the tournament without the same applicable excuse, the boater shall reimburse the non-boater partner for the gas expenses paid to whomever the non-boater fished with.

Weigh-In

- Boats must be inside the designated weigh in area (usually within the No Wake buoys) at the designated time.
- If a boat has not checked in 15 minutes after finish time a search may be initiated at the discretion of the Tournament Director after weigh-in.
- If it is deemed necessary for anyone to leave before the designated quitting time, it is the responsibility of the boat owner to notify the Tournament Director or a member of the club who is fishing in the tournament. In the event that no one can be reached by phone, a note left on the Tournament Director's (or other member's) vehicle will satisfy this requirement.
- Each member is to present his own fish to the Tournament Director for weigh-in.

ROSWELL BASS CLUB CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS

- Should a member have to leave a tournament early, his fish, if any, will not count toward fish points or big fish.
- If a member has a complaint or objection concerning a tournament he shall advise the Tournament Director, Vice President or President within 15 minutes of the completion of the tournament. He shall then file a written complaint to the Executive Committee for its consideration and action.

Points

One point will be awarded for each ounce of bass caught.

- Twenty five (25) bonus points will be awarded for each tournament day fished (e.g. 2 days = 50 points) and each monthly meeting attended. To receive "tournament" points you must be present at the launch or the weigh-in. The penalty (deduction) for each dead fish shall be four ounces from the total weight.
- Any angler having more than five fish in possession at the conclusion of the tournament shall have the largest (heaviest) fish removed from his sack until the limit of five fish is achieved and a one pound penalty (deduction) taken from the remaining total weight.
- If a fish is found to be short by the Tournament Director, it will not be counted and a 16 ounce penalty will be deducted from the total weight.
- A late penalty of one pound for each minute late shall be assessed the participants of any boat coming in late up to 15 minutes. Participants coming in more than 15 minutes late will be disqualified.

Prizes

- The tournament winners will receive cash prizes to be paid at the next regular meeting as follows:

First Place	$30.00
Second Place	$25.00
Third Place	$20.00
- Only regular paid up members of the Roswell Bass Club will be eligible for prizes at tournaments.
- Should the club membership number be below 20, the payout for each place is reduced by $5.00.
- Non-members can participate in the Ramp Pot.
- In case of ties, awards will be given as follows:

Tie for 1st place	two first place and one third place.
Tie for 2nd place	one first place and two second place.
Tie for 3rd place	one first place, one second place and two third place.

OTHER ACTIVITIES

- The club will sponsor a team of up to 6 members in the annual Georgia Bass Federation Tournament (FLW Top 6) and/or the Georgia Bass Nation Tournament (BASS Top 6) based upon total points accrued during the calendar year. The club will pay the tournament entry fee and provide each participating team member $125 for expenses.
- The Sportsman of the Year award will be given to the club member doing the most to help other members improve their fishing skills and thereby catch more fish. The winner will be determined by secret ballot taken at the meeting prior to the Christmas Party.

- The member with the highest total of “Fish Points” for the year will be named “Mr. BASS” and shall be awarded The Travelling Mr. Bass Trophy and $200.00 by the club.

- The club will sponsor a “Rolling Big Fish” pot. Participation in this activity is voluntary. All dues must be current to be eligible to win the Rolling Big Fish Pot. Potential Members and members that join during the year can participate if they pay an additional” catch up” amount to be even with the other members. To win, a participant must catch a Largemouth Bass weighing 6 pounds or larger, or a Spotted Bass, Small Mouth Bass or Shoal Bass weighing 4 pounds or more. In the event a qualifying fish of both species is caught during the same tournament or if two qualifying fish of the same species are caught and weigh the same, the prize will be equally divided. In the event that two or more qualifying fish of the same species are caught; the largest qualifying fish will win the prize. At the December Tournament, the largest fish weighed in will win the rolling big fish pot regardless of type. The 2nd largest fish will win ramp pot. In the event that no fish are caught in December this section will apply to the next tournament in which fish are caught. Fishing with professional guides at the December Tournament Lake is not permitted within seven days prior to the tournament.
